Join the 'Ten Million Hearts Meditation' on International Day of Yoga
"Let's make Compassion Contagious"

Greetings from the Heartfulness Institute!

The highest service that we can do for humanity in these troubled times is to bring everyone together in unity and solidarity, to face this existential challenge posed by the current situation. Sadly, at this crucial moment of time, unity eludes us.

What better opportunity than the International day of Yoga to send out the clarion call for Unity to all our communities and humanity at large. After all, the very meaning of Yoga is "Unity". And compassion is one of the root principles of Yoga. It is compassion that unites us. Compassion is contagious and transmits faster than any virus - making us stronger.

On the occasion of the International Day of Yoga, The Heartfulness Institute is organizing a virtual live event with well-known musicians such as Shankar Mahadevan and Pandit Jasraj along with YogRishi Ramdev Baba and the Global Guide of Heartfulness Kamlesh Patel, also known as Daaji.

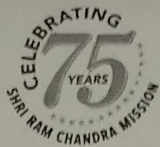

This event is scheduled for Sunday, June 21, 2020 at 7 AM IST in English followed by various regional languages starting from 11am IST. This 90-minute fiesta of Music, Meditation and Yoga will be live cast on YouTube, Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter, and Heartfulness channels. We expect millions of participants from all over the globe to attend this event in support of the International Day of Yoga.

We would like to invite your esteemed organization to be a supporting partner for this event which has the potential to bring together organizations and leaders from several nations across the globe. With your endorsement and support to promote our efforts, this event will be a memorable virtual gathering of human beings from all over the world in the name of unity and compassion, the very purpose of Yoga.

We look forward to your partnership and support. May all human beings be inspired to come together to make compassion contagious.

Heartfully Yours,
IYD Organizing Team
