

B.B.A. (Forest Management and Eco-Tourism) CBCS Pattern Semester-III
BBA034 / 005 - Paper-II - Eco-Tourism Management

P. Pages : 2

Time : Three Hours

GUG/S/25/16183

Max. Marks : 70

1. Long Questions

1. Discuss the key principles and guidelines for planning an eco-tourism destination. 12

OR

2. Analyze the socio-cultural impacts of eco-tourism on indigenous communities. 12
3. Explain how eco-tourism contributes to environmental sustainability. Provide relevant examples. 12

OR

4. Evaluate the challenges in implementing eco-tourism projects in protected areas. 12
5. Discuss the role of public-private partnerships in the promotion of eco-tourism. 12

OR

6. What are the environmental risks associated with eco-tourism? How can they be mitigated? 12
7. Examine the role of eco-tourism in promoting climate change awareness. 12

OR

8. Compare eco-tourism with adventure tourism. Highlight their similarities and differences. 12

2. Short Questions.

1. What is the significance of eco-friendly infrastructure in eco-tourism? 3

OR

2. Define the term 'nature-based tourism' 3
3. Mention three key stakeholders involved in eco-tourism. 3

OR

4. What are the main goals of eco-tourism? 3
5. Explain how eco-tourism supports wildlife conservation. 3

OR

6. What is the concept of 'carbon footprint' in the context of eco-tourism? 3

7. Name three eco-tourism practices that minimize waste. 3

OR

8. Describe the concept of "visitor management" in eco-tourism sites. 3

3. One Line Questions 1x5*

1. What is the main focus of eco-tourism?
2. Name one national park in India known for eco-tourism.
3. What is the full form of IUCN?
4. Define 'conservation tourism'.
5. Name one country that is a leader in eco-tourism.

4. Fill in the Blanks. 1x5*

1. ----- is an essential tool for monitoring the sustainability of eco-tourism practices.
2. ----- is a country famous for its eco-tourism initiatives in Africa.
3. The main objective of eco-tourism is to protect ----- while providing educational experiences.
4. ----- is considered the pioneer of eco-tourism.
5. The term “eco-tourism” was first used in ----- by Hector Ceballos-Lascurain.

*****