

-
- Notes :
1. All questions are compulsory.
 2. All questions carry equal marks.
 3. Write case laws wherever necessary.

1. 'Judicial process is the way by which courts affect the application and development of law'. Explain the statement with the help of administration model of judicial process.

OR

State the objectives of the judicial process. What are the principles of the judicial process?

2. Explain the concept of judicial review. What are the different types of judicial reviews? Is there any limitation to the judicial reviews?

OR

What is judicial activism? Explain the various methods of judicial activism that are followed in India.

3. Discuss the role of judges and notion of judicial review in India. What do you understand by the 'independence' of judiciary and the 'political' nature of judicial process?

OR

Throw light on the challenges of judicial activism and the three dimensions of justice.

4. What is the concept of Dharma in ancient Indian thought? Do you think that Dharma is the foundation of legal ordering in Indian thought?

OR

What are the various theoretical bases of justice the liberal contractual tradition? Discuss the utilitarian tradition and liberal moral tradition.

5. Discuss the equivalence theory of law. What is the principle of equivalence law? Do you agree that punishments should be equivalent to the crimes severity?

OR

'The constitution provides for an independent and integrated judiciary'. Explain the statement with proper justification.
