

LL.M. (CBCS Pattern) Semester-III
PLC10B - Public Authorities and Liability - Controls on Maladministration

P. Pages : 1

Time : Three Hours

GUG/W/24/10174

Max. Marks : 80

- Notes :
1. All questions are compulsory.
 2. All questions carry equal marks.
 3. Write case laws wherever necessary.

1. Describe the salient features of official secrets Act, 1923. Examine its present status after the enactment of Right to Information Act, 2005.

OR

Examine the importance and significance of the doctrine of Promissory estoppels as an aspect of Administrative Law.

2. Discuss the liability of Government and Public Authority in Torts and Contracts.

OR

“Democracy thrives in transparency but not in secrecy”. Discuss.

3. Evaluate the nature and function of Lokpal in India. Explain its working.

OR

Explain the Constitutional provisions relating to right to information in the light of leading decisions of the Supreme Court.

4. Administrative Tribunals owes its origin to Act 323-A of the Constitution. Discuss the scope, powers and functions of administrative tribunals in India.

OR

“Control over public enterprises is essential to promote efficiency”. In the context of above statement throw light an important methods by which control over public enterprises is exercised in India.

5. Write short notes on:

- a) Commission on Inquiry
- b) Vigilance Commission.

OR

Explain the control over administrative tribunals and quasi-judicial bodies.
