

LL.B. (3 Years Course) (CBCS Pattern) Semester - VI
Course Code : UL36C05 - Intellectual Property Law

P. Pages : 1

Time : Three Hours

GUG/S/23/13666

Max. Marks : 80

- Notes : 1. Attempt all questions.
2. Each question carries equal marks.

1. What do you mean by Intellectual Property? Discuss the rationale and objectives behind the intellectual property (IP) protection system.

OR

Discuss the role of international agreements and organizations, such as the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO), the World Trade Organization (WTO), and the Agreement on Trade-Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights (TRIPS), in shaping global intellectual property law.

2. Explain the different types of patents (utility, design, and plant) and the requirements for patentability, such as novelty, non-obviousness, and utility.

OR

Discuss the implications of patent protection on innovation, using examples. Give the registration procedure of Patents in India.

3. Examine the concept of copyright and its historical evolution. Analyze the key elements of copyright protection, such as originality, fixation, and expression, with relevant case law examples.

OR

Discuss the limitations and exceptions to copyright, including fair use doctrine.

4. Analyze the role of trademarks in intellectual property law. Explain the process of registering a trademark and discuss the criteria for trademark infringement. Provide examples of famous trademark disputes and their resolutions.

OR

Write Short notes on any two of the following:

- a) Passing off
c) Plagiarism
- b) IPR & E-Commerce

5. Explore the concept of geographical indications (GIs) and their role in protecting the reputation and identity of local products.

OR

Discuss the legal framework for GIs, and provide examples of GIs from different jurisdictions. Analyze the challenges and controversies surrounding the enforcement of GIs.
