

LL.M. (CBCS Pattern) Semester-II
PLC08B - Administrative Process

P. Pages : 1

Time : Three Hours

GUG/S/25/10146

Max. Marks : 80

-
- Notes :
1. Attempt all questions.
 2. All questions carry equal marks.
 3. Refer the case laws whenever necessary.

1. Discuss the nature, scope and modern approaches to the administrative law.

OR

‘The government has changed from police state to welfare state. Explain the positive duties of administration under the modern social welfare state.

2. Discuss the concept of ‘Rule of Law’ in England as propounded by Dicey, and also explain the rule of Law in modern context.

OR

Explain the Doctrine of separation of power. Discuss the spirit and basis of separation of power under the Indian constitution.

3. ‘Article 14 of the Indian constitution provide equality in the light of principle of Rule of Law’. Explain with relevant case laws.

OR

Critically evaluate the Kraipak’s decision and its impact on the obliteration of the distinction between administrative and judicial powers, including the evaluation of the doctrine of quasi Judicial functions.

4. Critically analyse the constitutionality of delegated legislation in India. Discuss the excessive delegation of legislative power and the legislative control of delegated legislation.

OR

Discuss the nature and scope of administrative discretion. How does it differ from Judicial discretion? What are the limits of sub-delegation?

5. Discuss the constitutional limitations on the administrative actions. What remedies the constitution provides for their violation?

OR

Evaluate the contribution or role of Indian judiciary in development of administrative law in India.
