

- Notes :
1. Attempt all questions.
 2. All questions carry equal marks.
 3. Write case laws wherever necessary.

1. Mr. A is forced to do labour work under Mr. B, a landlord on his field as his grandfather has borrowed money from Mr. B, the landlord. Explain the Constitutional Perspective to ban forced and bonded labour in the light of case laws.

OR

Discuss the concept of master and slave relationship and the recent developments in labour laws in India to remove this social injustice.

2. Write a note on Rights and Liabilities of Registered Trade Union.

OR

Discuss the concept of collective bargaining and its advantages and disadvantages in industrial relations.

3. Write notes on:

- a) Workman under Industrial Disputes Act, 1947
- b) Lay – off

OR

Discuss the scope, objects and features of Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.

4. The company “A” wants to do conciliation with the company “B” as they want to preserve the goodwill of their companies in the market. Explain the conciliation procedures provided under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.

OR

Give a detailed note on Unfair labour practices.

5. Discuss Model Standing Order Certificate under the Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Act, 1946.

OR

Explain the Disciplinary Procedures and related Departmental Inquiries under the Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Act, 1946.
