

- Notes :
1. All questions are compulsory.
  2. All questions carry equal marks.
  3. Write case laws wherever necessary.

1. Define Administrative Law. How can you distinguish between the administrative Law and constitutional law? What is the importance of administrative law?

OR

How administrative law poses challenge to the doctrine of separation of power?

2. What is meant by Delegated Legislation? What is Legislative control of Delegated Legislation and procedural control of Delegated legislation?

OR

Critically examine the principle of Dicey's rule of law in the light of judicial decisions.

3. Discuss the limits beyond which a legislature cannot delegate the law making power with reference to decided cases.

OR

Discuss the judicial control of delegated legislation in the light of relevant case laws.

4. Comment on Judicial control of administrative action.

OR

Comment on the administrative discretion and its control.

5. What is the object and scope of commission of enquiry under the commission of enquiry Act, 1952? State the powers of the commission of enquiry under this Act?

OR

Discuss:

- a) Adit, head of the department, wrote confidential reports in respect of two of his employees, named Ramesh and Suresh. While he praised the work of Suresh and gave him "Very Good" rating, he gave "Poor" rating to Ramesh. Both Ramesh and Suresh appeared before a departmental committee for promotion which included Adit as a member. Suresh was selected for promotion and Ramesh was rejected. Will Ramesh succeed if he challenges the selection? Substantiate your answer.
- b) The examination of the respondent Prajakta was cancelled on the ground that she was short of attendance. The question was whether such shortage of attendance would disqualify her from the examination. The facts were that Prajakta was suffering from ill-health. Her examination was cancelled without giving her a reasonable opportunity of being heard. – Apply law and decide.

*****