Ever since she bursts into the scene by making it to the 1980 Moscow Olympics as a 16-year old, P.T. Usha's tall deeds have exemplified Indian sporting excellence. The spirit queen was so consistent for over a decade that she was truly the flag bearer who helped countrymen live the dream of a rare sporting excellence in the international arena.

Hailing from a remote village called Payyoli, Usha became an icon for sport lovers. She made the nation swell with pride, every time she stepped on to the track. She gave unalloyed joy to her fans when she became the first Indian woman to make it to Olympic final.

Usha's greatest moment was also the most shattering in her life as she was pushed to the fourth place in the 400 meters hurdles final at the 1984 Los Angeles Olympics. The Romanian Christiana Cojocaru won the bronze medal. Usha lost by an agonizing 1/100th of a second. But every Indian household acknowledge the sense of achievement, though it fell short of India's first Olympic medal from the track. Several girls born during the 1980's were named after the golden girl It served as an eloquent testimony to the love and affection many people had for Usha. Usha's reign as the Asian sprint queen was highlighted by her snapping up five gold medals and a bronze at the 1985 Jakarta Asian track and field meet followed by a sensational four gold medals and one silver haul at the Seoul Asian Games the following year.

- i) When did Usha capture the imagination of the entire nation?
 - ii) How did she help her countrymen rear the dream of a rare sporting excellence?
 - iii) Why were many girls in the mid 80's named after Usha?
 - iv) What was the most shattering moment in the life of Usha?
- b) What is advertising? Describe Billboards, Online, and Print media as the tools of advertising.
